

CME6100-40 Personal Project

CME6100-40 Personal Project

Reflective Learning Journal and Portfolio; 100% of total grade.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Produce a finished project.
2. Identify your needs and make use of available resources.
3. Use a journal to record your thinking at different stages and analyse any difficulties encountered.
4. Understand the relationship between imagination and practice, and between personal creative energies and the larger world of media.
5. Understand and respond to an identified audience develop, in some cases, the negotiating skills required by collaborative work.

What is involved?
This module can take a variety of forms – from experimental practice within a creative specialism through to work created as part of an experiential learning experience or arising from a live brief. You will be able to work individually on a creative project. This module requires you to be inventive and to explore your own resources in designing and completing a personal project representing a full 40 credits' work.
What should I submit?
You should submit a Reflective Learning Journal and a Portfolio that is equivalent to 5000 words and covers all learning outcomes. The form that your Portfolio takes is open to negotiation and could be presented as a Sketchbook, Production Folder and/or Trello.

DEADLINE
Journal and Portfolio submission: Friday 19th May 2023 5pm